

Curriculum Vitae — Kathryn “Kath” Girdler Engler (1951–2023)

Personal Information: Name: Kathryn “Kath” Girdler Engler Born: 1951, Indianapolis, Indiana Died: April 2023, Augusta, Georgia Primary Residence/Studio: Augusta, Georgia

Education:

- B.F.A., Augusta State University
- B.S.N., Medical College of Georgia, Augusta
- Apprenticeship training in Italy: stone carving, mold making, assisted sculptors

Artistic Focus:

- Mixed-media sculptor: paper-pulp figurative sculpture and bronze sculpture
- Influences: ancient Greek, Roman, Cycladic, archaeological fragments

Selected Exhibitions: Solo Exhibitions:

- The Preservation of Form, Parthenon Museum, Nashville, TN (2008)
- Making Something Ancient of the New — Sculpture by Kath Girdler Engler, Morris Museum of Art, Augusta, GA (2011)
- Mother/Nature, Hunger Artist Gallery, Albuquerque, NM (2000)

Selected Juried / Group Exhibitions:

- Southeastern Juried Exhibition, Mobile Museum of Art — Best of Show (2006)
- Huntsville Museum of Art Juried Exhibition
- LaGrange National — Lamar Dodd Art Center
- Sarratt Gallery, Vanderbilt University
- ArtFields (2014), exhibiting Growth of a Seed

Major Public Works & Commissions (Selected): Monumental Bronze Works:

- Navigating History, Walton Rehabilitation Hospital, Augusta, GA (2006)
- The Nature of Healing, Children’s Medical Center, Augusta, GA (1999)
- Swimming Up Stream, YMCA, Augusta, GA (2011)

- Cultural Triad, Maxwell Performing Arts Center, Augusta State University (1985–86)
- The Graduate, Greenblatt Library, Medical College of Georgia (1989)

Hospital / Healing Environment Commissions:

- Healing Hands,